The Historic Seventh Avenue District (HSAD) in Hendersonville, NC is showcasing our WNC farmers by hosting a Local Farmer's Market in conjunction with the popular Hendersonville NC Apple Festival. This special Farmer's Market will feature a variety of WNC farm fresh produce, fruits, vegetables, meat, dairy, flowers, jams, jellies and more! Our previous markets have been a huge success for our vendors, visitors and HSAD. Besides the Farmer's Market, we also feature the Historic Train Depot (circa 1902) and the Apple Valley RR Club model train display.

The Apple Festival lists the HSAD Farmer's Market as a special event in all of their advertising and publications. The Apple Festival attracts more than 250,000 visitors annually. HSAD will also be using a variety of advertising mediums to promote the Farmer's Market.

Ample Parking will be available along with great accessibility to and from the Apple Festival.

Vendor Space is limited and we will accept vendors on a first come, first serve basis. HSAD will be reviewing the applications to insure a variety of products are available at the market. Take advantage of this great opportunity to showcase and sell your products!
